

PAVILION

Uorden Pavilion Collection

Flexible, Interactive & Inviting

Watch the world change. See Pavilion change with it. Creating a new tradition. Meeting tomorrow's demands. A structure; an annex; a shelter. The solution: a pavilion. Inviting, accessible, progressive. Pavilions of interacting elements, designed by James Bubb. Pavilion is library furniture that has taken a new life. Imagine Pavilion's possibilities as a: Search Pavilion, Reference Pavilion, Dialogue Pavilion, Media Pavilion, and Information Pavilion.

Mutli-functional

1. Conferencing Area
2. Reference Shelves
3. Stand-up Workstation

Pavilion configuration for group dialogue, computing, or study. ▶

Four person Pavilion for study, research or any ideas requiring focus and concentration. ▼

▶ Pavilion table for conference, study or research.

◀ Study Pavilion which easily converts into a stand up computer station.

Pavilion desk with storage unit. ▶

Metal glides provide a durable end to the connecting post.

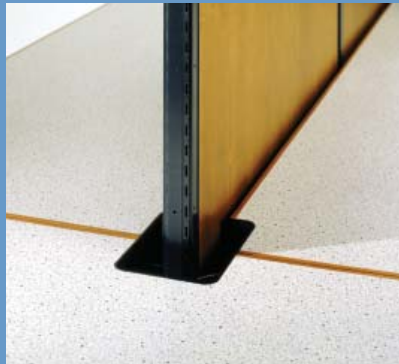

Patented universal cruciform connecting posts provide the reconfigurability and adjustability factors.

Optional double-faced power/data outlet center.

Pavilion's adjustable work surface bracket.

Panel cord drop, corner cord drop also available.

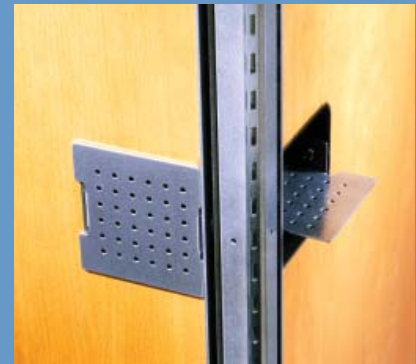

J-Channel manages and distributes electrical and data.

Power column can also be equipped with data. Pavilion is UL listed.

Pavilion's power leg provides electrical and data to the floor.

Metal perforated panel grommet covers allow access to data and electrical systems.

Worden™

For more information on Pavilion or any other Worden product, please call 1.800.748.0561
199 East 17th Street, Holland, MI 49423
www.wordencompany.com
©Worden 2006